New York's railroads and mass transit system represent one of our greatest accomplishments and one of our greatest disappointments. There is absolutely no excuse for the federal, state and city governments to let our roads, rails, bridges and tunnels fall into such bad disrepair. Let's all commit---not with words, but with action--- that we will fund repairs and rebuilding the system we have had for over a century as our major priority. Nothing less is acceptable.

With the Board of Directors of the Rabbinical Alliance of America.

We had a very successful TB and Hepatitis testing day at my office.

Great to celebrate at the Burma Summer Festival! Congratulations on your 15th year anniversary.

Thank you Sloan Kettering for helping our community.

Empire Blue Cross Blue Shield covers many communities. Thanks for your service.

Maimonides Cancer treatment offers excellent service.

NYU Langone is one of New York's best hospital systems.

With my brothers and sisters at the Muslim community's Give Back Program.

“Good health is the most important thing. More than success. More than money. More than power.”
