Dear Friend,

As the holiday season approaches and we look forward to a new year, I hope all of your days are filled with laughter, friendship, and cheer. In all the hustle and bustle, please remember that this time of year can be difficult for those who have lost loved ones or fallen on hard times. A simple phone call or text message can go a long way toward reminding a friend you care. I also encourage everyone to buy local as much as you can and buy back into the community. If you want to give this season, but aren't sure where, I've included the contact information for a few of our great local organizations on this card. I'm thankful to have the opportunity to represent you, and I want to personally send my warmest regards, well wishes, and joy.

Sincerely,

Assemblyman Joe DeStefano
