Assemblymember Carroll designating Zuzu's Petals a New York State historic business. If you know of a local business that has been in operation for over 50 years and is deserving of recognition, let Assemblymember Carroll's office know.

Assemblymember Carroll speaking in support of recent migrants with Borough President Antonio Reynoso and others at Borough Hall. This spring Assemblymember Carroll organized a clothing drive for children of migrants and continues to advocate for a NYC that works for everyone.

Assemblymember Carroll with Jack O'Connell, Ed Cunningham, and Laurie DeVito celebrating the successful conversion of Seeley Street from the narrowest two-lane street in the city to a much safer one-way street. Contact Assemblymember Carroll's office with any other street safety concerns you may have.

Assemblymember Carroll at PS9's Back to School BBQ with Principal Sha-Wonda Williams-Credle and PTO President Leah Vickers announcing the $20,000 in state funding secured by Assemblymember Carroll for enrichment programming at PS9.

I want to hear from you. If you have a community issue dealing with parks, schools, street safety, local business or other quality of life issues, please call my office. What priorities do you want me to focus on in the neighborhood in the coming months?
