Dear Neighbor,

Today is the 50th Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising, one of the historic events leading up to the launch of the gay liberation movement. I will be remembering the bravery and boldness shown by the New Yorkers in the LGBTQIA+ community as they fought back against oppression. I hope you will join me in doing the same.

We have come along way in the intervening decades and I look forward to fighting shoulder to shoulder with LGBTQIA+ community and allies as we continue the struggle to guarantee equal rights for all.

Sunday the 30th marks the date of the NYC Pride March, which kicks off at 12:00PM at 26th Street & 5th Ave. Visit the NYC Pride March website to learn more, including how you can reserve accessible seating.

You may also want to consider attending the Reclaiming Pride March, which begins at 9:30AM with a meeting place of 7th Ave south of Christopher Street. For more information, visit <https://reclaimpridenyc.org>.

I hope you have a great weekend.

Harvey
