Assembly Member Rebecca A. Seawright's Statement on Upper East Side High Rise Fire that Injured 22

FDNY Responded To A Fire On East 72nd Street

New York, New York-- "THANK YOU to the brave firefighters who responded early this morning and saved lives on East 72nd Street. My best wishes to four firefighters and 18 residents in recovery. FDNY urges all New Yorkers to be #FDNYSmart - close the door behind you when escaping a fire."

Assembly Member Seawright's office, in partnership with the American Red Cross, will be issuing free smoke alarms through out the community in the near future.
