"I want to say thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for giving me the opportunity to be your voice in Albany."

— Chris

Meet our new Assemblyman, Chris Tague

Chris Tague came from humble roots. He grew up working on a local farm before going out on his own. When Chris was 23, a local family business took a chance on him, he started out as a laborer and worked his way up to General Manager. Now, Chris will be our full-time Assemblyman fighting for our shared values:

- Setting a higher standard for our elected officials
- Lowering taxes so our middle-class families can thrive again
- Supporting our farmers and increasing access to broadband
- Expanded support for our EMTs and firefighters
- Providing help and new hope to those struggling with addiction
