JOE ANGELINO BACKS THE BLUE

Joe Angelino is a retired member of the Norwich Police Department. Use of his rank, job titles, and photographs in uniform does not imply endorsement by the NPD.

In honor of National Police Week, I thought it was important to highlight our law enforcement officials. As a former police chief in Norwich for nearly 20 years, I know just how much the men and women of law enforcement sacrifice to protect us; that is why I will always have their backs and fight to keep them safe.

MESSAGE FROM JOE TO COMMEMORATE
NATIONAL POLICE
WEEK!

Joe is fighting to protect those who protect us by:

-  Fighting to reform the HALT Act to keep correctional officers safe. ¹
-  Supporting the repeal of bail reform to keep those who commit serious crimes behind bars. ²
-  Making sure officers who give the ultimate sacrifice are memorialized and never forgotten. ³
-  Working to protect the privacy of officers by making doxing them a crime. (A.513)
-  Fighting to make sure anyone who murders a police officer goes to prison for life. (A.1480)
