Creating Jobs, Supporting Large and Small Businesses, Expanding Opportunities in Central New York

ASSEMBLYMAN  JOHN LEMONDES

Creating a Strong and Vibrant Central New York

Buying fresh-baked bread from the Sunday farmer's market, enjoying family dinner at the new restaurant in town, the moment our son or daughter lands a local job after college.

A strong local economy means more opportunity and a better quality of life for us all.

Assemblyman John Lemondes: Jumpstarting Central New York's Economy:

- ✔ Bring back local manufacturing jobs and support valuable careers in the trades (A.2271)
- ✔ Establish the New York First - Shop Local Program to promote local products and businesses, creating jobs in the process (A.3626)
- ✔ Begin a full-scale effort to keep small retail businesses in the state and prevent outsourcing (A.2710)
- ✔ Offer a child care savings program for all small business employees (A.5217)
