A record $26.6 billion for education in the 2018 State Budget, nearly $1 billion more than last year, will prepare students for a bright future.

✓ Baldwinsville.....increased by $1,292,963

✓ Jordan Elbridge..... increased by $720,365

✓ Additional Funding Included:

• Funding for libraries increased by $1 million to be a total of $96.6 million. An additional $34 million was included for capital projects for libraries.

• $827 million was included for pre-k programs statewide so our youngest learners get a head start.

• $7.6 billion was included in this year's budget for Higher Education, including the Excelsior Free Tuition Program and New York State Tuition Assistance Program.
