in honoring the outstanding women who strengthen our community

Dear Friend,

Women's History Month is a time to recognize the trailblazing women who have helped pave the way to a brighter future. As we celebrate inspiring women from all walks of life this March, we can also take a moment to recognize those in our own backyard who have impacted our lives and made Western New York a better place.

These extraordinary women deserve to be honored for their hard work and dedication, which is why I'm hosting the Women of Distinction Awards. I encourage you to nominate a woman who has made an impact on your life or on the lives of others so that, together, we can let them know how much they mean to us.

You can submit the nomination form provided here or fill one out online by visiting my website at nyassembly.gov/McMahon. Nominees must reside in the 146th Assembly District, which includes the towns of Amherst and Pendleton and the village of Williamsville. I'll be accepting nominations until Sunday, March 31. I look forward to learning about the women who inspire you!

Sincerely,

Karen McMahon
Member of Assembly
